

2003-12-18 ISPI Vancouver Bulletin

Roger Chevalier is coming to town! | Jan. 13 Reminder | Congratulations to a BC CPT | Co-host opportunities | Calling Spectrum authors!

Roger Chevalier
Director of Information &
Certification,
ISPI International

Monday, February 9: From Gaps to Results:

Analysis, Implementation and Evaluation for Performance Improvement

Special Event: Interact with HPT master craftsman Roger Chevalier, PhD, CPT. Pick up practical tips and tools as you learn new approaches to analysis, implementation and evaluation. More details on this day-long event coming soon.

February 10: Putting Performance Improvement Standards to Work

Dr. Chevalier will also be our speaker for our February monthly event on the evening of Tuesday, February 10th. More details soon.

Online Orientation to Performance Improvement

To learn more about HPT and Roger Chevalier, visit our brand new Orientation to Performance Improvement, created by our 2004 co-President, Jim Wright. You are also invited to participate in our new online survey about the Orientation.

January 13: E-learning as a Strategic Business Tool – Reminder

Kick off your new year by joining our Tuesday, January 13th event with Ramona Materi. You'll benefit by hearing about the latest national and international perspectives on e-learning — as offered by a seasoned professional who is well-experienced and well-connected with the BC and Canadian e-learning scene. For details, visit http://www.ispi-van.org/htm/bulletins/2003\_1202\_ispi-van\_bulletin.pdf

Congratulations to Weston McMillan!

ISPI Vancouver would like to congratulate Weston McMillan on achieving his Certified Performance Technologist (CPT) designation. CPT represents a significant accomplishment in Weston's pursuit of Human Performance Technology (HPT). Weston is responsible for Global People Development for e-Bay, based in Burnaby. He is ISPI Vancouver's VP Special Events.

Volunteer Opportunity for Two Co-Hosts

ISPI Vancouver is seeking two enthusiastic volunteers to act as co-hosts for our special event with Roger Chevalier on Monday, February 9th. For this full-day workshop, the co-hosts will be responsible for arriving early, coordinating set-up, managing registration, and taking care of other host-related duties throughout the day. Co-hosts will also assist with pre-event activities such as registration. Co-hosts should be reliable, well-organized self-starters. Experience with event management is an asset. This co-host opportunity is available to ISPI Vancouver members only. In exchange, the co-hosts will each be provided with a no-charge registration for the event — value $125, member registration fee — and will have the opportunity to participate in the event. To apply, send an email outlining your experience and why you feel you should be selected for this opportunity to Margy Hayden, VP Membership, at Margy.Hayden@icbc.com by January 6, 2004.

SPECTRUM Is Seeking Authors

ISPI Vancouver is seeking authors for our chapter's quarterly, SPECTRUM. Space is still available in the upcoming issue. The deadline is January 6, 2004. If you are interested in writing, please contact our SPECTRUM editor, Julie Case, at johnandjulie@shaw.ca, ASAP.